

Nancy Black Norelli Takes Office as Treasurer of NCBA Dispute Resolution Section

Nancy Black Norelli, Managing Partner of Norelli Law, PLLC, has been elected Treasurer of the North Carolina Bar Association's Dispute Resolution Section.

Norelli is certified by the North Carolina Dispute Resolution Commission to be a superior court mediator, a family financial mediator, and an estates and guardianship mediator.

The Dispute Resolution Section addresses issues that are relevant to both mediation and arbitration, and acts as a resource for practicing mediators, arbitrators and attorneys who utilize alternative dispute resolution.

The Section presents one of the few opportunities for North Carolina dispute resolution professionals to share experiences and learn from one another. The section works with the North Carolina Dispute Resolution Commission, which is responsible for certifying and regulating mediators in North Carolina State Court programs, thereby enabling section members input into policies that affect all mediators.
